

City A.M.
26th January 2018

GREYBROOK HOUSE, MAYFAIR

From £12.5m

Piano maker Bechstein's former London HQ and show room has been transformed into four luxury residences in west London. Developer Fenton Whelan is behind the apartments on 28 Brook Street set inside a Grade II listed, Art Deco building. Now, the six storey building is home to three full floor, three bedroom apartments and a five bedroom duplex penthouse with its own full-floor roof terrace for £25m. An optional Health Club membership at Claridges and The Connaught is also thrown in for buyers.

Call Knight Frank on 020 7647 6612

FENTON WHELAN

LONDON

fentonwhelan.com